ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Electors of the City and County of Honolulu:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Treasurer for the City and County of Honolulu and ask your support. My independent candidacy has received the endorsement of the joint Home Rule and Labor party convention, and I believe my ability to perform the duties of the office will be recognized by a majority of the voters of this City and County. I have made an honorable name for myself in private business in these Islands. I have occupied positions of trust and worked for the good of all. I have upheld the name of Mooheau as a supporter of the principles of the great Kamehameha. I have done my utmost to uplift the Hawaiian race and promote good citizenship. I consider that I am entitled to the support of the people, whom I shall serve faithfully and well.

Your Obedient Servant,

GEORGE C. BECKLEY.

Announcement

To the Electors of the City and County of Honolulu, Oahu:

Gentlemen:—In the firm belief gained from experience and the general and widespread opinion freely expressed in this city and county that the efficiency and integrity of the police force can only be maintained by the independence of the Sheriff and his Deputy from active participation in party politics, and that the security of life and property is paramount to all other considerations, and at the request of a large number of the electorate of this city and county, we have decided to be candidates for the office of Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff, and respectfully solicit the support of the electors of this city and county at the polls in November.

If you return us, we pledge ourselves to enforce the laws without fear or favor. The electors may rest assured that the efficiency and discipline of the entire police force will be our first consideration.

We stand firmly on the side of law and order, and we solicit the support of the citizens of this city and county, and an endorsement of our policy of the entire separation of the police from party politics. We remain, gentlemen,

WARSHIP IS GAS DRIVEN

British Experiment Is Attracting Great Interest

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 19.—A new era in ship propulsion is foreshadowed by the successful working of a suction gas engine on board H. M. S. Rattler. The principal advantages of the new engine, as explained by a correspondent who visited the ship, are that no stokers are required and that cheap coal in place of the best steam coal can be used. With the same amount of coal consumption 50 per cent. more power is obtained. The ship fitted with the suction gas engine has no boilers and requires no funnel. It moves noiselessly and smokelessly.

The correspondent says: "Here is this clumsy old vessel, exceedingly foul, being driven by a 550-horsepower engine at the rate of nearly eleven knots at a cost of 6 cents per ton-mile. The old, horrible conditions of stoking are abolished. The necessity for using the best coal will one day no longer exist. Slack or dross coal will be utilized in the most complete manner, and in so easy a fashion that a child may feed the producer."

"There is another point that can by no means be passed over, which is that no funnels are necessary, for draught is not needed and the exhaust may be led outboard at the side or under the stern of the ship, wherever it is most convenient. It does not need an engineer or a prophet to see the immense possibilities of this new power, and while, of course, it must not be forgotten that it is as yet, so far as ship-propulsion is concerned, only just out of the experimental stage, it may equally be borne in mind that the great fact of suction gas being perfectly adapted for this purpose has been abundantly demonstrated. "I cannot close this dispatch without adding a word of admiration for the appearance of that place which is usually so terrible—the stokehold. On board this vessel there is no stokehold. There is a huge, airy compartment, with two or three great upright cylinders in it, not at all hot, and quite clean, and free also from many other objectionable concomitants of stokeholds generally, especially the hideous uproar."
